Subject: Draft NPRM for the Criminal Intent Standard Rulemaking

Hi Andrew, Jessica, and John,

Please find attached two versions of the draft proposal for the criminal intent rulemaking.

The first provides all of the comments and edits in tracked changes. The other is a cleaned up version with many of the edits incorporated. However, OW's comments and edits are included so the responses are readily visible. Additionally, comments from OP and comments on the draft regulatory language also remain in this version. Note. There are a few outstanding questions that remain, one of which is a substantive comment from OW on the regulatory language, which the staff are still working to address.

Best,
Nizanna
